About the Client:

Darktrace is a global cybersecurity company using unsupervised machine learning to detect and respond to cyber threats. Their products serve 9,000+ organizations in 110+ countries across all industries.

The Problem We Solved

Darktrace's demand generation was heavily reliant on paid search, creating fragile, expensive top-of-funnel performance. A single algorithm change or budget cut could cripple their pipeline.

The Opportunity

Cybersecurity decision-makers consume heavily — research papers, threat reports, webinars, and case studies. Building an authoritative content ecosystem could generate compounding demand.

KEY PAIN POINTS

1 82% of demand came from paid search alone

2 No content strategy to drive organic demand

3 Events were standalone, not integrated digitally

4 Pipeline visibility dropped after initial conversion

Our Strategic Approach

Axris Media Solutions designed a full-funnel demand generation architecture spanning content, events, paid media, and partner programs — with a unified attribution model connecting every touchpoint to revenue.

1

Content Demand Engine

Produced 24 authoritative threat intelligence reports, 8 webinars, and 40+ blog posts targeting cybersecurity decision-makers.

3.2x organic traffic growth

2

Multi-Channel Activation

Integrated LinkedIn ads, programmatic display, content syndication, partner co-marketing, and virtual events into one unified program.

6 channels, 1 attribution model

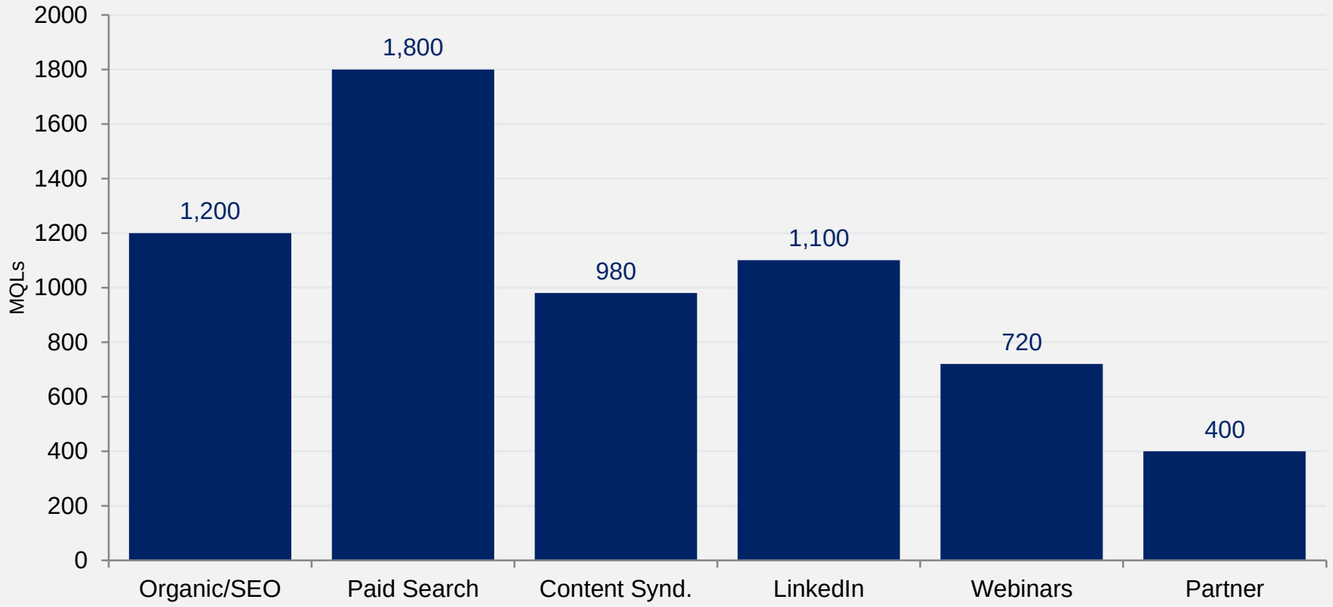

3

Pipeline Acceleration

Built mid-funnel nurture sequences with buying committee engagement, peer reviews, and live demo offers to accelerate evaluation.

-34% time to opportunity

How We Did It — Campaign Timeline

1 MONTH 1

Audit & Strategy

Full audit of existing demand sources, ICP definition, content gap analysis, and channel selection.

2 MONTH 2

Content Infrastructure

Built editorial calendar, produced hero assets (reports, webinars), and set up content syndication across multiple publisher networks.

3 MONTH 3–5

Multi-Channel Activation

Launched all 6 channels in coordinated waves, with unified tracking and full-funnel attribution from day 1.

4 MONTH 6–8

Optimize & Scale

Monthly ROMI reviews by channel, budget reallocation to top performers, and new segment expansion.

Key Takeaways & Benefits

What We Learned

Content Creates Compounding Returns

Organic demand from SEO content grew 312% month-over-month from month 3 onwards.

Channel Diversification Reduces Risk

No single channel exceeded 30% of total MQLs after month 4 — true demand resilience.

Threat Intelligence Converts Best

Industry-specific threat intelligence reports had 4x the conversion rate of generic content.

Partner Co-Marketing Is Undervalued

Partner channel delivered lowest CPL ($47) with highest average deal size.

Client Benefits

Pipeline Resilience

No single channel dependency — demand survives budget cuts or algorithm changes.

Lower Blended CPL

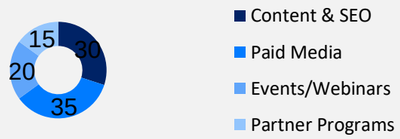

Blended CPL dropped from $210 to $79 across all channels.

Brand Authority

Darktrace positioned as the leading voice in AI cybersecurity via content.

Predictable Revenue

Month-over-month pipeline predictability improved from 48% to 86% accuracy.

Demand is Built, Not Just Bought.

Darktrace's transformation proved that the most resilient demand engines combine paid activation with organic authority-building. When content, community, and paid media work together, the compounding effect is extraordinary.
